PAPERS COMMENT ON MAC SWINEY

London Times Attacks Acts of British Government; Many Defend Course

LONDON, Oct. 26.—Articles on the death of MacSwiney occupied much space in this morning's newspapers, regardless of their political views. Some of the journals refrained from commenting editorially on the situation which has arisen while others have written in accordance with their customary attitudes on the Irish question.

TIMES IS HOSTILE

The Times, which is hostile to the government's Irish policy and the Irish bill prepared by the cabinet, severely attacks the government's handling of the matter of reprisals. Referring specifically to MacSwiney, the newspaper expresses the fear that the effects of his death will not be confined to the British Isles, but it recalls it has always maintained the Irish question was essentially British.

MISGUIDED PATRIOT

Asserting the lord mayor was "a misguided, but sincere patriot, dying for his convictions," the Morning Post says: "We cannot perceive what relation can exist between suicide and martyrdom. We cannot forget the many loyal servants of their country who have been shot down in the performance of their duty in Ireland, and for whose memory there is no appeal nor false sentiment."

The Daily News says the government imprisoned MacSwiney as a criminal and convicted him into a martyr, and must bear responsibility for his death. "Every day," the newspaper declares, "Ireland is being welded more surely and more irresistibly by the premier and his allies into a nation that will not be conquered."

CALLS IT MURDER

"The murder of MacSwiney by the government," says the Herald, organ of labor, "was accomplished after slow torture for 14 days."

The Telegraph defends the government and pleads in behalf of the victims of assassination in Ireland.

COMMENT IN FRANCE

PARIS, Oct. 26.—Although declaring France must not interfere in questions relative to the interior policy of England, newspapers of this city, commenting upon the death of Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, pay tribute to his courage.

"One can only bow down before the man who has died for his ideal," declares the Journal.

The Echo de Paris says: "The sacrifice made by MacSwiney will resound throughout the world as a heart-rending appeal of a suffering nation."

LEGION ASKS PRESIDENT TO DISMISS POST

Former Soldiers Oppose Official's Stand in Matter Of Deportations

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Formal request for the dismissal from office of Louis E. Post, assistant secretary of labor, was submitted to President Wilson today by a committee of the American Legion.

Representatives of the legion in the Pacific coast states demanded last May an investigation of Mr. Post's official conduct with reference to the deportation of aliens. An announcement by the legion committee today said a special committee's report reviewed the entire matter of deportations and stated that the labor department cancelled from January 1 to June 15, 1920, 2115 deportation warrants, ordered deportation in 539 cases and deferred sixty cases.

"His main contention against Mr. Post," said the announcement, "is that 12 of the aliens ordered deported were actually deported but that at that point Mr. Post took charge of the matter and the deportations ceased."

MASS MEETING FOR MAC SWINEY

Englishman Beaten By Crowd At Gathering of Irish Sympathizers

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Thousands of Irish sympathizers attended mass meetings last night, protesting against what they termed the "murder by the imperialistic government of Great Britain" of Lord Mayor Terence MacSwiney.

Dudley Field Malone, Farmer-Labor party candidate for governor of New York, Walter E. Halliway, of Philadelphia, and several Irish women, speaking to a great crowd in Columbus circle, criticized the government at Washington and the Republican and Democratic national candidates "for refusal to intervene in the cause of Ireland."

IRISH FLAGS THERE.

Flags of the Irish republic and of America and buttons bearing the photograph of Mayor MacSwiney were distributed in the crowd, which booed and hissed every mention of the British government and Premier Lloyd George, while references to MacSwiney as "one of the greatest martyrs in history," and to the "Irish republic," were greeted with prolonged applause.

BRITON BEATEN.

A young man in the crowd who said he was an Englishman belittled remarks made by one of the speakers and was severely beaten before rescued by policemen.

"The torture and death of MacSwiney," Mr. Malone said, "is a sacred service to liberty everywhere. Not in half a century has one man by the simple offer of his life done so much to arouse the moral conscience of men and women everywhere who love liberty. This man's death has destroyed the prestige of the British government beyond the power of the combined land to repair it. The death of this wealth and economic influence of England, after many days of torture and agony has exposed the pretenses that Great Britain wants the league of nations to assure self-determination to oppressed peoples."

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

"If this young Irishman could leave his wife and child and lay down his life for his country's freedom, will not millions of men and women in this country of every blood, stock and creed, demand their voices in a compelling demand that our president and our government at Washington officially voice the indignation of the American people at England's contempt for mankind?"

Resolutions adopted by the Friends of Irish Freedom in another meeting protested against "the murder of Terence MacSwiney" and declared: "We charge Lloyd George with the commission of this most heinous crime."

'45 Minutes From Broadway' With Chas. Ray Is Ogden's Hit

That the people of Ogden never tire of a good picture or a good story is shown by the reception that "45 Minutes From Broadway" with Charles Ray in the principal role has received at the Ogden theatre during the past two days. Thirty minutes before the doors of the Ogden theatre were opened Sunday afternoon more than one hundred people were standing in line at the theatre.

At each of the four performances Sunday, as well as those yesterday, the theatre was crowded. The story of the photoplay is familiar to the people of Ogden who saw the production when produced upon the stage by George M. Cohan with Fay Templeton and a big cast. In addition to the photoplay, Professor Harold Fleming has a number of the well-known musical numbers of the play which are rendered during the evening.

In addition to the feature picture the Pathe News shows the wonderful race won by "Man of War," the greatest race horse of the year. There are also pictures of the British prison in which Lord Mayor MacSwiney died Monday on the 74th day of his hunger strike.

GOODING DENOUNCES NUGENT AS NON-PARTISAN

POCATELLO, Idaho, Oct. 26.—Former Governor Frank R. Gooding, Republican candidate for United States senate, addressed a large audience this evening. The governor denounced Senator Nugent for an alleged support of the Nonpartisan league, in which the Nonpartisan league candidate, Samuels, withdrew in favor of Nugent.

He also denounced the Democratic national administration for not protecting by protective tariff, the influx into this country of Canadian wheat, Argentine and Australian cattle and Australian and New Zealand wool, to the detriment and failure of many wheat, cattle and sheep growers in this country.

Governor Gooding said that if he were elected senator the people of Idaho would be consulted in regard to their wishes in legislation which affected them. He also stated that he favored a cleanup of thousands of Democratic attaches in Washington, who, he said, were merely political appendages. He also declared for an economical administration of the affairs of the state and nation.

Governor Gooding was applauded when he spoke in favor of reclaiming the arid regions of the state of Idaho and of giving the ex-servicemen the pick of the land and other credit due them.

The speaker was introduced by Major Fred Reed, executive secretary of the Idaho State Reclamation association.

FIVE DISSENTING OWNERS OF CLUBS WILL MEET

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—Dan Johnson, president of the American league, today called a meeting for Friday of the five club owners who refused to attend the meeting of baseball magnates here last week when the other three league magnates and the National league owners voted to abrogate the present agreement.

The five are Thomas Shibe, of Philadelphia; Clark Griffith, of Washington; Phil Ball, St. Louis; Frank Navin, Detroit; and James C. Dunn, Cleveland. The course of the American league majority owners in the event the Chicago, New York and Boston teams carry out their threat to withdraw from the league and join the eight National league owners in setting up a twelve club circuit, will be discussed.
